

The people of Caruthersville and the territory for 50 miles in every direction will benefit greatly by the stupendous sacrifice of the Musgrave & Mason Stock consisting of $20,000 worth of high grade Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing goods, in fact everything contained in their store at Caruthersville, Missouri.

We are assured that the cost of the goods will have no bearing on the selling price, as much of this stock will be disposed of at less than the cost of the raw material.

The firm of Musgrave & Mason is to be highly complimented for their disposition in making this enormous sacrifice. We are assured that these goods will be placed on sale for the ten days beginning Saturday, Jan. 9th, 1909, at prices that will shake the business world from center to circumference.

Get advised in time. Drop everything and get your share. Come as far as you may, you will find that it will pay you to come fifty miles to attend this sale.

We are also positively assured that this will not be the ordinary sale which is usually a fake, but something that will go down in the history of Pemiscot county as the biggest thing of its kind that ever occurred in its borders. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

The store is now closed to remark and rearrange the goods and will positively reopen Saturday, Jan. 9, 1909, at 9 a. m.

A PROSPEROUS YEAR

And we hope the most prosperous in the history of Hayti and of our business is before us. If not it will not be because I have failed to do my part, and make my store worthy your continued good-will and patronage.

QUALITY AND PRICE

Every one knows that the quality of any article governs the price. There is just as much difference in the quality groceries as there is in dry goods. Quality considered, I know that my prices are the lowest, and if you want the best at the lowest price I know that I can please you.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES

At the expiration of their present contract, which expires in the spring, the Wells-Fargo Express company will be succeeded by the United States Express company. Rumor has it that at one time when the Frisco needed financial assistance the Wells-Fargo refused it, and that the United States company came to the rescue. Hence, the change of companies.

Kennett Democrat: There was absolutely no truth in a report circulated this week, to the effect that Tim Barham had killed a man at Portageville, Christmas day. He did not even have any trouble with any one, Mr. Walker, editor of the Critic, says; Barham is clerking for his son, and does not own a saloon. He has been sick, in bed, for several days.

John Summers, a young married man, shot and killed his young wife at Campbell Christmas eve. He claims that the shot was an accident. It seems that he was fumbling with a pistol, when it was discharged with the above result.

S. E. Missourian: Louis Houck has been building a railroad to connect the Thebes bridge and Cape Girardeau in order to let the Cotton Belt into the Cape, for some time with more or less activity, recently has commenced to rush the work in order to finish it. The other day, apparently for the purpose of preventing a crossing of the new Houck road over the Frisco's Gulf line, about three miles south of the city, two spurs of track were built Monday and filled with bad order cars at that point where the new crossing was to have been placed.

Dr. J. D. Hardwick, at Charleston, plead guilty to two charges of illicit liquor selling and was fined $100 in each case. Then in consideration of the holding up of two cases against him in circuit court, Dr. Hardwick has promised to leave Charleston and the state by January 11, never to return to this commonwealth.

James J. Corbett, formerly heavyweight champion, has announced his willingness to meet Jack Johnson, if it were necessary, to bring the championship back to the white man.
